Purpose of 4-H

4-H is a community of young people across America learning leadership, citizenship and life skills. 4-H is a formal component of the University of Nebraska -Lincoln Extension youth education effort. Extension will provide support to 4-H clubs, members, and volunteers to help them provide positive educational experiences. In return, 4-H clubs, members and volunteers are accountable to Extension for their activities and finances.

Use of the Clover

The 4-H Name & Emblem is protected under United States Code 18 USC 707. Appropriate use of the 4-H Name & Emblem is permitted by a 4-H member or volunteer once the 4-H club is chartered by National 4-H Headquarters at the Cooperative State Research, Education and Extension Service (CSREES) within the United States Department of Agriculture. For more information about use of the 4-H Name & Emblem, contact your local extension office or visit the 4-H website: <http://4h.unl.edu/staff/emblemguide.htm>

Non-Discrimination Statement

Nebraska 4-H abides by the non-discrimination policies of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the United States Department of Agriculture.

I give permission to use my child’s name/photograph in publications, ads, news articles, websites or other electronic media pertaining to 4-H.

Following 4-H events/programs youth may be asked to voluntarily participate in the 2008 4-H Impact Study to assess educational impact and life skill development gained from 4-H participation. Information gained will help improve 4-H programs. It will take 10-15 minutes to complete the survey and there are no know risks associated with this study. All information is obtained and reported as aggregated data. If you have questions regarding this study, contact primary investigator, Jill Walahoski at 402-472-1710. If any of your questions regarding your child's right as a research participant has not been answered you may contact the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Institutional Review Board at 402-472-6965. You are voluntarily making a decision whether or not to allow your child to participate in this research study. You are free to decline participation with no consequences from Nebraska 4-H or the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.
